32. PARTIAL INVALIDITY

If any provision in these Conditions are held to be invalid or unenforceable by any Court or regulatory or self regulatory agency or body, such invalidity or unenforceability shall attach only to such provisions. The validity of the remaining provisions shall not be affected thereby and the Contract and the Conditions shall be carried out as if such invalid or unenforceable provisions were not contained therein.

33. JURISDICTION

All Contracts shall be governed by and construed in accordance with English Law and the Company and the Customer hereby submit to the exclusive jurisdiction of the High Court of Justice in England.

34. RELATIONSHIP TO SPECIAL AGREEMENTS

These Conditions are supplemental to any Special Agreement made between the Company and the Customer and except insofar as is expressly excluded thereby or inconsistent therewith in which event the terms and conditions of such Special Agreement shall prevail.

35. GENERAL

35.1. If at any time any Condition or part of the Contract is found by any Court, Tribunal or administrative body or competent jurisdiction to be wholly or partly illegal, invalid or unenforceable in any respect, that shall not affect or impair the legality, validity or enforceability of any other provision of these conditions or the Contract.

35.2. If any illegal, invalid or unenforceable provisions of these Conditions or any part of the Contract would be legal, valid and enforceable if some part of it was deleted or amended, the parties shall negotiate in good faith in order to agree the terms of a mutually satisfactory provision, achieving as nearly as possible the same commercial effect, to be substituted for the Condition or part of the Contract which is found to be illegal, invalid or unenforceable.

35.3. The failure or delay by the Company in exercising any right, power already available to it under the Contract shall not in any circumstances impair such a right, power or remedy nor operate as a waiver of it. The single or partial exercise by the Company of any right, power or remedy under the Contract shall not in any circumstances preclude any other or further exercise of it or the exercise of any other right, power or remedy.

- 35.4. Any waiver of a breach of, or default under any of the terms of the Contract shall not be deemed a waiver of any subsequent breach or default and shall in no way affect the terms of the Contract.
- 35.5. The express terms of this Contract are in lieu of all warranties, conditions, terms, understandings and obligations implied by statute, common law, custom, trade usage, course of dealing or otherwise all of which are hereby excluded to the fullest extent permitted by law.
- 35.6. The Customer warrants that it has not been induced to enter into the Contract by a statement, promise, representation or misrepresentation (if established) not containing within the Contract and whether or not made innocently or negligently by the other party. To the extent that contrary to any such warranty, any statements, promises, representations or misrepresentations are shown to have been given, each party unconditionally waives any claims, rights or remedies which it might otherwise have had in relation to them. Nothing in this Clause 35.6 shall exclude or restrict any liability which a party would otherwise have to the other in respect of any statements, promises or representations made fraudulently by that party.
- 35.7. Subject to any Special Agreement and to any variation thereof or to these Conditions agreed in writing by the Company, these Conditions shall form the Contract and contain all the terms which the parties have agreed to the exclusion of other terms and conditions, previously agreements or understandings in relation to the subject matter of the Contract. The Company shall not be deemed to accept any other conditions or any modification or waiver of these Conditions by failing to object to conditions contained in a communication from the Customer.
- 35.8. Any demand, notice or other communication given or made under or in connection with the Contract will be made in writing and sent to the usual trading address or registered office of the receiving party by the following methods of delivery and in case shall be deemed to have been served on the date and at the time specified below, provided that all other requirements of this provision have been met.
- 35.9. The Company may collect and process information relating to the Customer in accordance with the privacy notice which is available on the Peel Ports Group website. Each Party agrees to comply with their respective obligations under the Data Protection Legislation.
